

International Day of Peace Pinwheels for Peace Festival

Sunday, September 19, 2010

Everyone is invited!

Join us for an afternoon of fun, peace, music, art and dance while we celebrate diversity and cultural richness! Bring a chair or blanket and join us in the park! There will be a drum circle, activity tables, informative displays, multicultural performances, entertaining speakers, and a GIANT pinwheel contest.

What: Free Community Festival

When: September 19th, 2010

2-4pm, Drum circle starts at 1:30 so bring a drum and join us!

Where: Plunkett Park, University of Central OK

100 N. University Dr.

Edmond, OK 73034

(Follow the Pinwheel Trail)

Who:

Speakers: Linda Esser - CAST for the World, Razi Hashmii - Council on American Islamic Relations, Abby Nathanson - Shinnyo-en Foundation, Anthony Douglas - State of OK NAACP President, Matt Blubaugh - UCO President of Student Activities, Superintendent David Goin - Edmond Public Schools, Angela Monson - former OK Senator and OKCPS School Board

Performers: Musician and Artist Steve McLinn, UCO Kaleidoscope Dancers, St. Andrew's Lion Dance Team, Oklahoma Academy of Irish Dance, Violinist Nathaniel Parker, Casady School String Quartet, Linwood Honor Choir, Intertribal American Indian Dancers, and more!

Why:

To remember that by honoring everyone we can achieve peace