

The Greater OKC Chapter of the United Nations Association invites you—

Annual UN Day Luncheon

Featuring Sherry Blazi, MSW

Speaking on the topic--

“Maternal Health: What We Know and Why We Care.”

Saturday, October 21st – 12 Noon

Oklahoma City University

Wanda L. Bass Music Center – Atrium

NW 25th Street & Blackwelder

About our Speaker:

Sherry Blazi, MSW, has a distinguished record of scholarship and work in social work, child abuse prevention and empowering parents. Ms. Blazi has published numerous articles and reports on parenting, prevention of child abuse, and empowering families. Her engagement in maternal and child welfare issues over the past 20 years has included her tenure as director of the state Office of Child Abuse Protection, coordinator of the Parent / Teacher Training Project, a social worker with SoonerStart / Early Intervention Program, and she has acted as a trainer for state and national professional groups. Ms. Blazi holds a Master’s in Social Work from the University of Oklahoma and a BA in psychology and sociology from Fairmont State College in West Virginia.

Our venue: The Wanda L. Bass Music Center at Oklahoma City University.

Student Scholarships Available

Through the generosity of longtime supporters, the UNA-OKC is able to offer several luncheon scholarships to students who have an interest in the UN and its mission. If you are a high school or college/ university student interested in attending this luncheon, be sure to check the Student Scholarship box on the reservation form (below), include an email address and return it today for prompt consideration. You will be notified prior to the luncheon if you have received the scholarship. If they all are awarded prior to your application, students are eligible for reduced ticket price of $10.
