2007 UNA-USA Annual Meeting & Luncheon

Noon -- Saturday, April 14, 2007

Featuring:

Erma Stewart portraying Eleanor Roosevelt in "Equal Dignity Without Discrimination –
The Birth of the United Nations"

"Where, after all, do universal human rights begin?"

In small places, close to home -- so close and so small that they cannot be seen on any maps of the world. Yet they are the world of the individual person; the neighborhood he lives in; the school or college he attends; the factory, farm, or office where he works. Such are the places where every man, woman, and child seeks equal justice, equal opportunity, equal dignity without discrimination.... Without concerted citizen action to uphold them close to home, we shall look in vain for progress in the larger world."
--Eleanor Roosevelt

Location:

Meinders School of Business
Student-Faculty Lounge
Oklahoma City University
Oklahoma City, OK

As Chairperson of the UN's Commission on Human Rights, Eleanor Roosevelt regarded her work on the Universal Declaration of Human Rights to be the greatest achievement of her life. Her enthusiasm for her work at the United Nations was rooted in her humanitarian convictions and her enduring faith in human dignity and worth.

Join us in celebrating the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and remembering the life of a remarkable woman!
